HEATED MARBLE SCULPTURE

ITALIAN DESIGN, CRAFTSMANSHIP & INNOVATION

Fabio Alemanno Design is a company with over 40 years' experience in designing, manufacturing and installing high-end projects with marble and other natural stones.

We love to combine traditional craftsmanship with cutting-edge technologies for the development and manufacture of unique Heated Marble Sculptures.

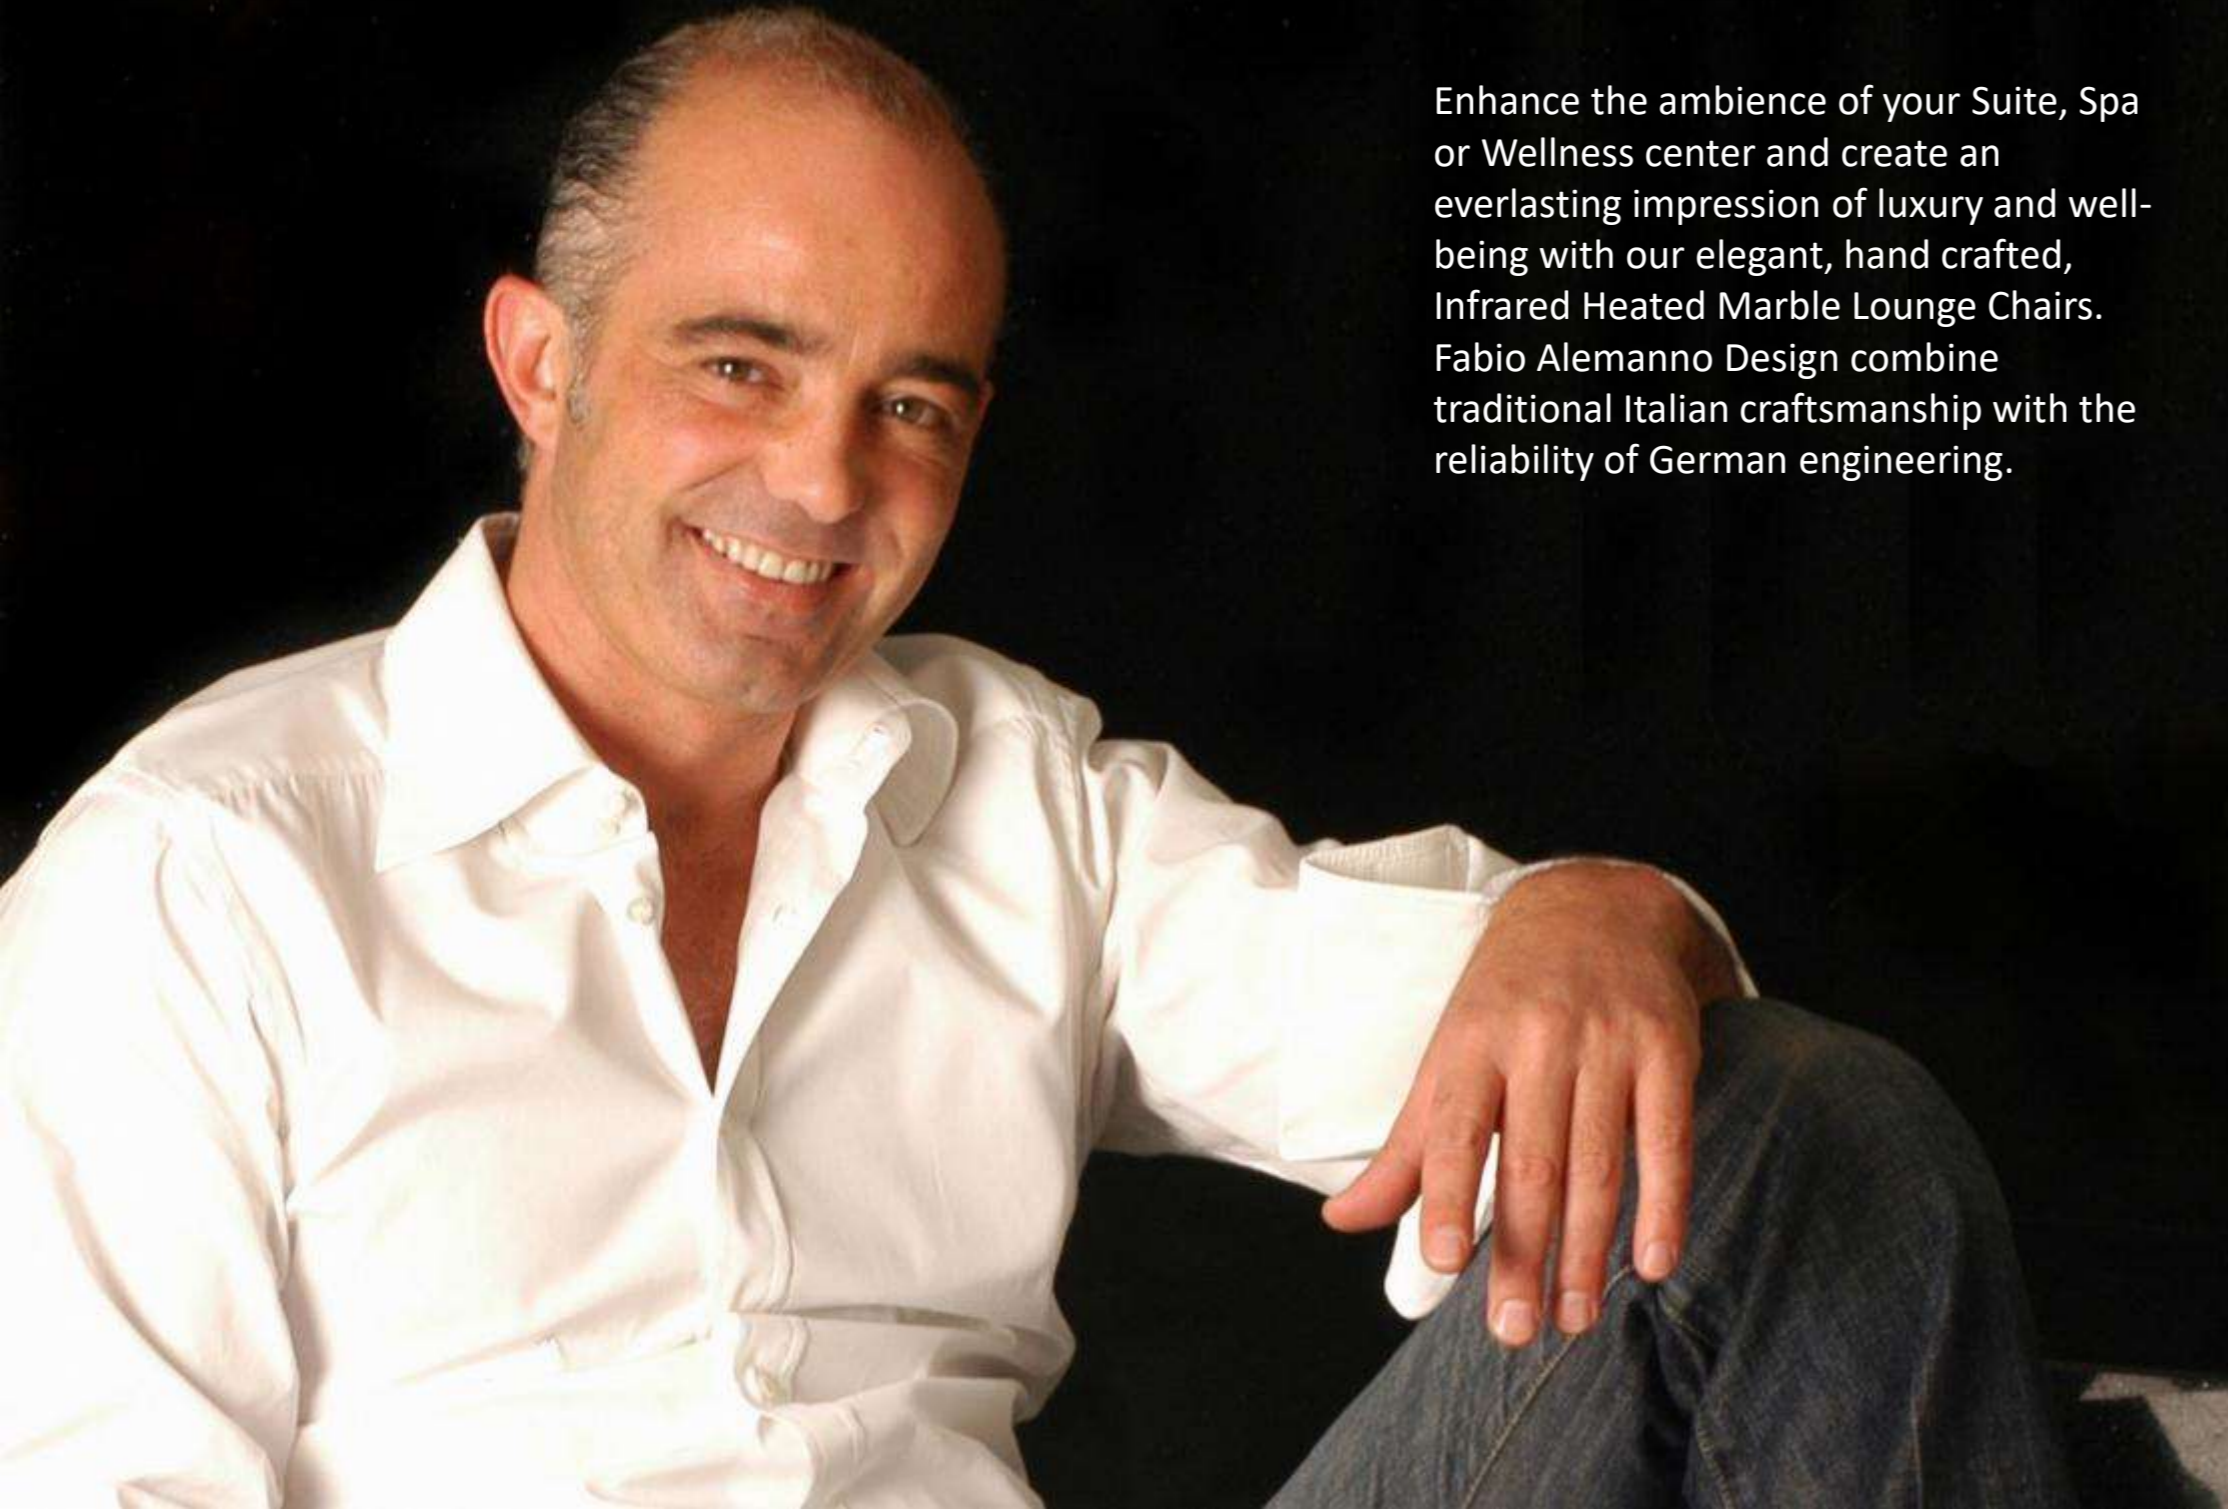

Developed for relaxation or treatment areas within the Spa industry, our Infrared Heated Marble Lounge Chairs, have been perfected for the Hotel Suite and the Living Room, and could also be offered with bespoke design and materials.

The proven therapeutic benefits of long-wave infrared, together with the technical advancement of our products, make them the first choice for discerning clients around the world.

Cut from a single block of flawless marble, Fabio Alemanno Heated Lounge Chairs are pieces of modern art with an intimate usefulness no marble sculpture could ever achieve.

Ergonomically shaped and unique in their design and structure, they combine wellness with design and technology, offering unparalleled comfort and an unforgettable relaxation experience.

Enhance the ambience of your Suite, Spa or Wellness center and create an everlasting impression of luxury and well-being with our elegant, hand crafted, Infrared Heated Marble Lounge Chairs. Fabio Alemanno Design combine traditional Italian craftsmanship with the reliability of German engineering.

RELAXATION | REGENERATION | REVITALIZATION

NOW AVAILABLE WITH ADJUSTABLE ARMREST

Functionality

Continuous improvement. Our Heated Lounge Chairs can be equipped with adjustable armrests to maximize your comfort while improving your relaxation experience. The new feature design and engineering meet the strict criteria of the most demanding spas. The control buttons are easy to use. Located on the upper part of the armrest, right where the hand rests, allow users to find out the most suitable position regardless of their stature or build.

WELLNESS HAS NEVER BEEN SO ELEGANT AND EFFECTIVE

Our Heated Marble Lounge Chairs offer all the BENEFITS of traditional THERAPEUTIC HEAT METHODS such as HOT-STONE MASSAGE, INFRARED LIGHT TREATMENTS, SAND AND FANGO PACK all in one.

RELAX

Relaxation – an essential part of our everyday lives, with this in mind, our Heated Marble Lounge Chairs are designed to offer maximum ergonomic support and freedom of movement. The silky smooth finish applied to the marble caresses and soothes the skin as pleasant warmth radiates throughout the entire body enhancing the effect and offers an unparalleled total relaxation. The adjustable tilt angle makes our Heated Marble Lounge Chairs the absolute pinnacle of relaxation offering an almost zero gravity effect.

REGENERATE

Our Heated Marble Lounge Chairs offer the benefits of traditional Therapeutic methods like HotStone massage, Infrared treatment or Fango packs all combined into one. The deep penetrative effect of natural Infrared (warmth) enhance the body own natural regenerative processes. The adjustable temperature makes our Lounge Chairs the right choice for those seeking perfection in personal wellness.

REVITALIZE

The combination of warmth and ergonomic perfection multiplies many therapeutic methods. The radiate warmth improves and strengthens the circulation at the same time as resonating with the cell structure thus enhancing and accelerating the healing process. Relaxed and revitalized the body own metabolism increases the effect of not only mechanical but also medical therapy. Our Heated Marble Lounge Chairs are heralding a new age in personal wellbeing and heat therapy.

RELAXATION FOR YOUR BODY, MIND & SOUL

AUTOMATIC INCLINATION

Design

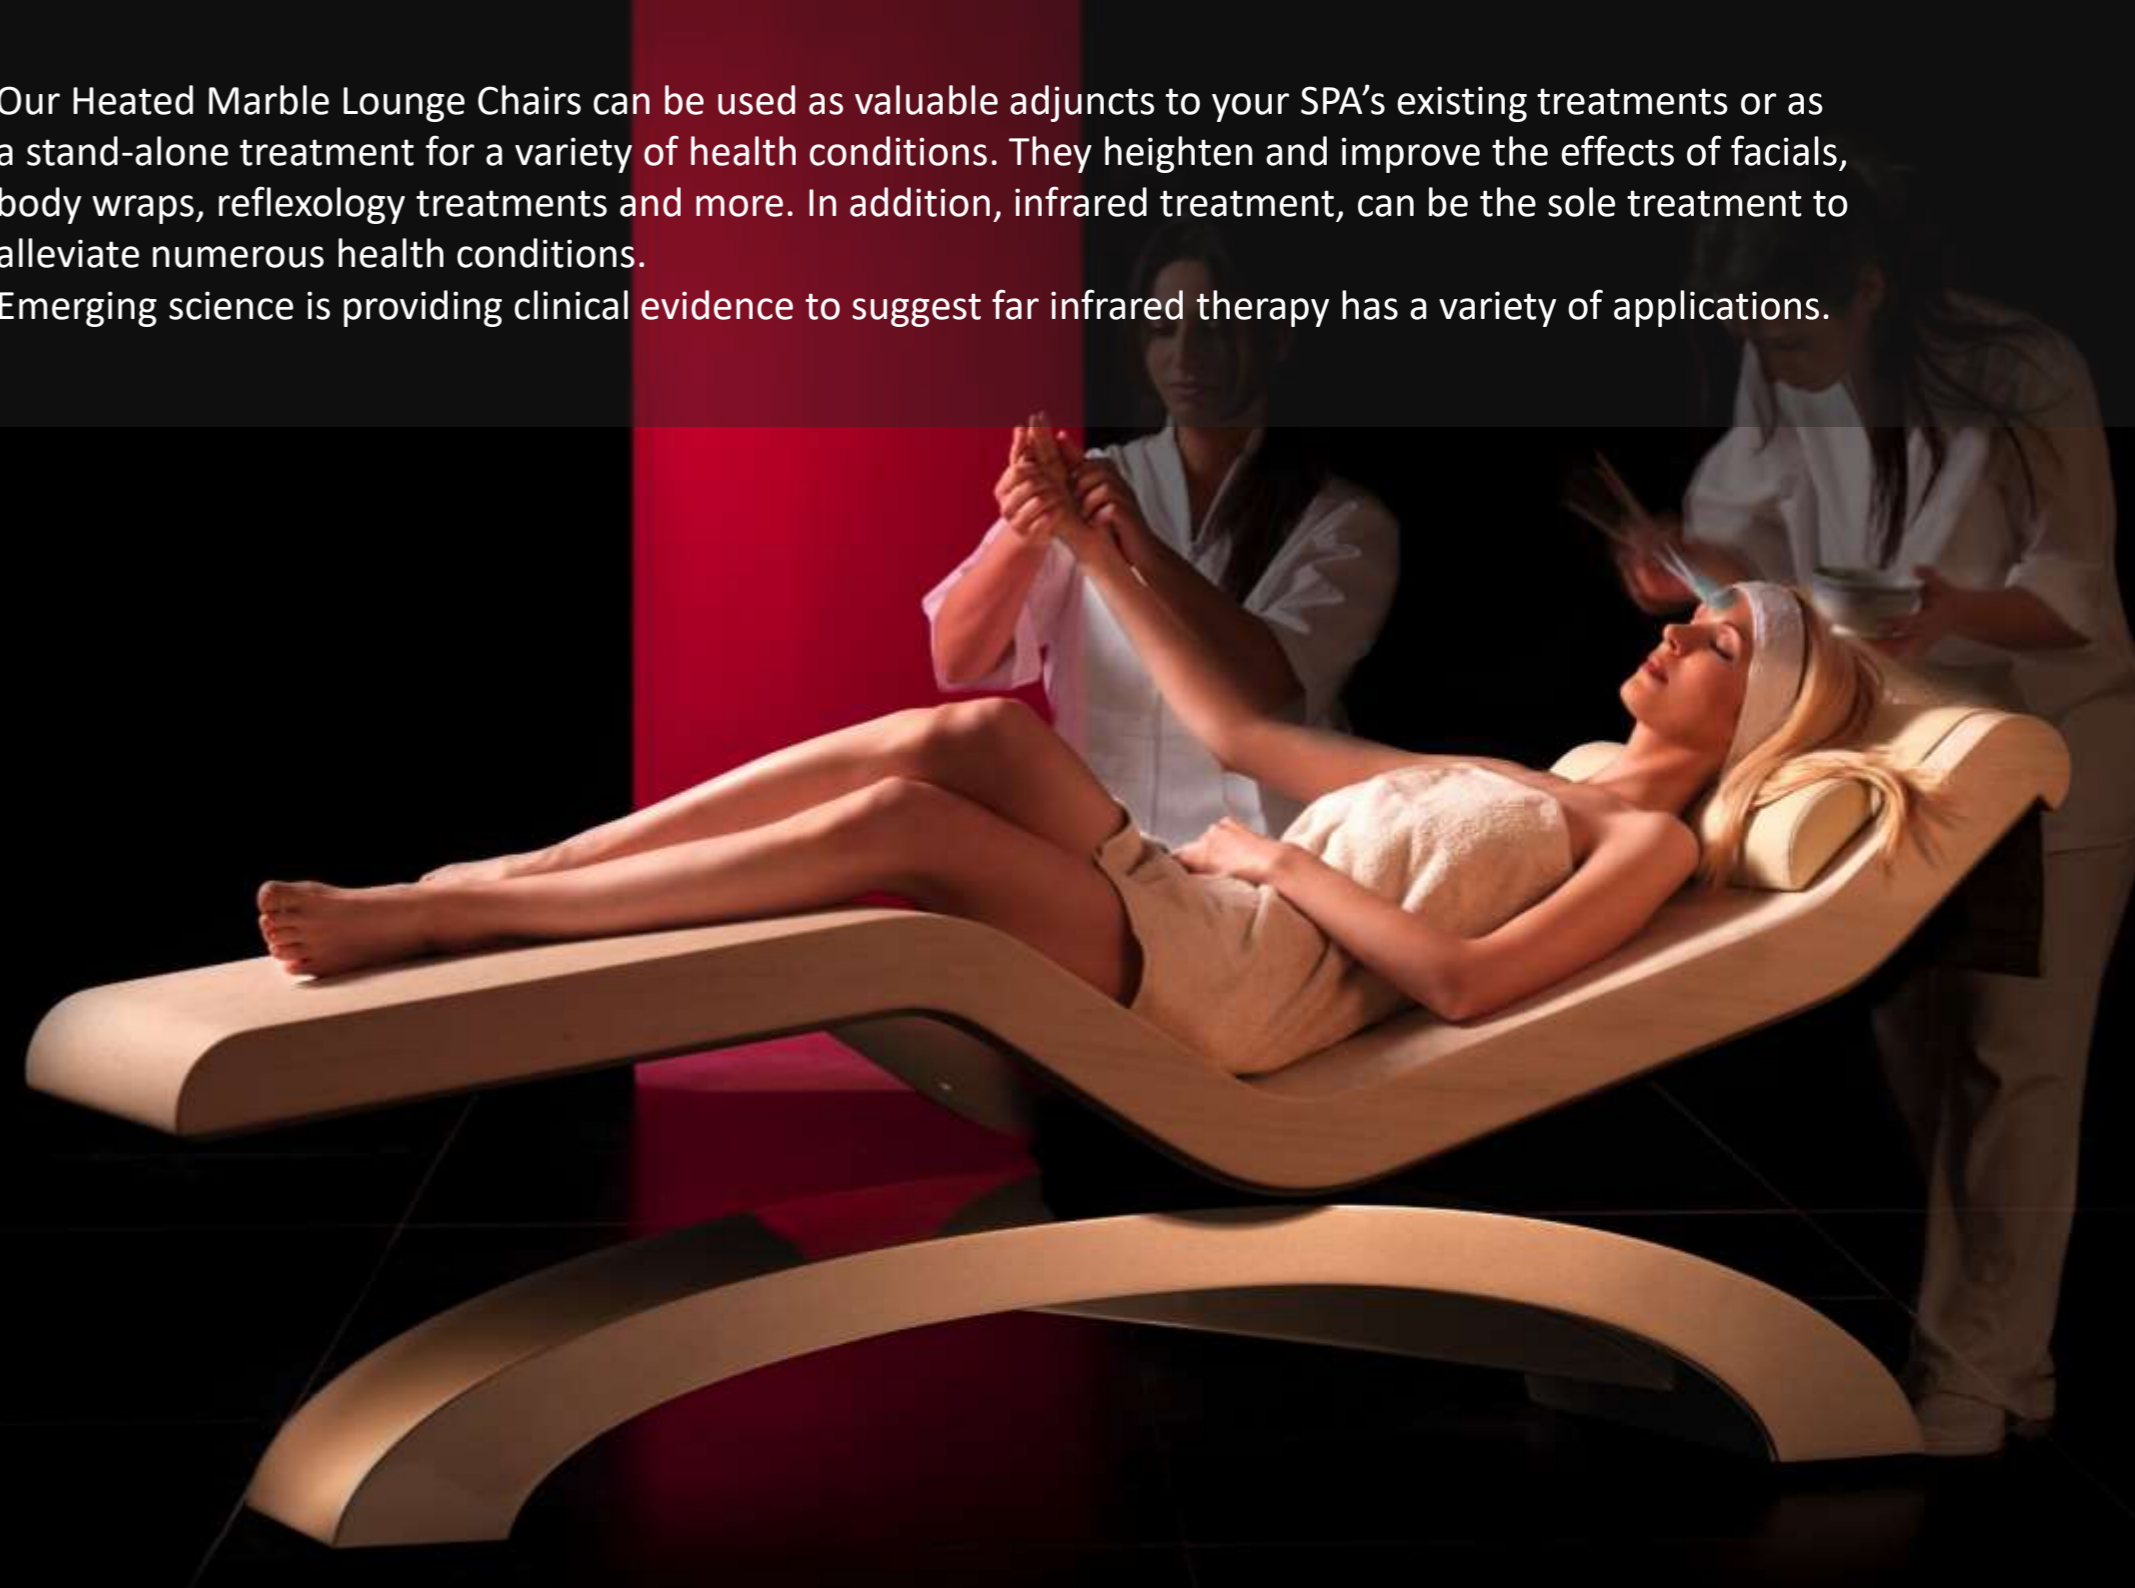

There is the elegance of the movement and the perfection in the details: a simple push on the button and the sculpture swings. An integrated tilt mechanism allows you to find optimal comfort for unparalleled relaxation. A unique sensation that no one has ever achieved before.

FOR THE PROFESSIONAL SPA

Our Heated Marble Lounge Chairs can be used as valuable adjuncts to your SPA's existing treatments or as a stand-alone treatment for a variety of health conditions. They heighten and improve the effects of facials, body wraps, reflexology treatments and more. In addition, infrared treatment, can be the sole treatment to alleviate numerous health conditions.

Emerging science is providing clinical evidence to suggest far infrared therapy has a variety of applications.

FOR THE HOTEL SUITE

Our Heated Sculptures offer a simple and effective solution to satisfy the needs of even the most time-crunched, tension-filled executive. In the privacy of their suite, your guests can conveniently soothe away their tensions and renew their energy with the infrared therapy delivered by our elegant Heated Marble Lounge Chairs.

Create an experience that will linger in your guest's memory.

Indulge in the relaxation and comfort of your personal spa at home. With our innovative Infrared Heated Marble Lounge Chairs, you can create a healing oasis - a space just for you - an Oase where you can relax, restore, revitalize and renew.
